Our Mission

The Catholic Community of Our Lady of Malibu welcomes all people to worship God, to grow spiritually in the Catholic faith, and to receive encouragement and direction in shaping the wider world in light of the Gospel.

Gospel for July 2 MT 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me,
and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;
and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.
Whoever finds his life will lose it,
and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.
Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.
And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

Treasures From Our Tradition

The Eucharistic Prayers at the heart of our liturgy have a long history, beginning with the extemporaneous prayers of the early Christians. The presiders gave thanks from their hearts, not from any prearranged text, over the gifts of bread and wine. When the assembly had the sense that enough was said, someone would call out "Amen!" and that was that. For the most part, the plan flowed directly from Jewish meal prayers, which always recalled God's mighty deeds. Some other markers and signposts were added almost everywhere fairly early, like the presider's call to attention: "Lift up your hearts!"

Scholars have provided us with translations of many early texts. These have actually helped us craft new liturgical prayers, because until the liturgical reforms of forty years ago, no one could recall any prayer but the Roman Canon, now called Eucharistic Prayer I. For hundreds of years in the West, it was our only Eucharistic Prayer, and it was only in Latin. But the history of our Eucharistic Prayers is amazingly fruitful, and models have come down to us that have yielded new insights and expressions. The old custom of improvising texts according to a master plan has not endured, but we have now rediscovered a plan of standardizing the text while allowing for a great variety.

Fear Not

How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today's scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that "reigned from Adam to Moses" (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation one message rings out loud and clear—"Do not be afraid!" The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to fear.

Malibu Homeless Connect Day

Wednesday, June 28, 10:00am to 1:00pm

Old Malibu Courthouse next to Malibu Library

The purpose of the event is to connect your local citizens, living outside, to services which support a path back to health and housing.

This is how you can help:

- ♥ They need lots of volunteers on that day.
 - ♥ They are collecting toiletries such as: sunscreen, lip balm, toothbrushes and paste, etc.
- (You may bring donations to the Parish Office)

Becoming Catholic

Are you interested in exploring what it means to be Catholic? Do you know someone who is interested in the Catholic Church? We have a special process for adults that helps them understand what it means to be Catholic and whether they are being called by God to live as Catholics.

If you are interested, contact the rectory office (310 -456-2361).

Peter’s Pence Collection

Thank you for your generous support of Pope Francis’s work through the Peter’s Pence Collection. Through this gift, you join in solidarity with him as a witness of charity. There are special envelopes in the pews for next week’s collection.

OLM Yard Sale
Now Collecting!

The Yard Sale will start on August 12th thru 20th.

So clean out those closets, drawers and garage and donate your saleable items. All items should be clean, safe, and in good working order.
