Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Mission

The Catholic Community of Our Lady of Malibu welcomes all people to worship God, to grow spiritually in the Catholic faith, and to receive encouragement and direction in shaping the wider world in light of the Gospel.

Gospel for July 30 MT 13:44-52

Jesus said to his disciples:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls.

When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind.

When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets.

What is bad they throw away.

Thus it will be at the end of the age.

The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?"

They answered, "Yes."

And he replied,

"Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

LOVING SOMEONE

To love someone deeply gives you strength. Being loved by someone deeply gives you courage.

—Lao Tzu

Treasures From Our Tradition

For centuries, the only Eucharistic Prayer we heard as Western Catholics was the old Roman Canon, usually recited in a low voice by the priest, in Latin. By the 1940s, many Catholics were learning to follow along with the actions of the priest by means of a bilingual missal, with Latin on one side and English on the other. Drawings of the priest's position at the altar, moving from one side to the other, or bowing or standing with uplifted hands at the center, helped the readers stay on track.

The Roman Canon is a long prayer, and since it was done every day for every occasion, priests had a way of galloping through it. Even though long, its structure is fairly simple, with the consecration and sacrifice clearly marked out. Sadly, this surviving prayer had triumphed over many treasures of our tradition that emphasized other dimensions of Eucharist. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy in 1963 did not call directly for new Eucharistic Prayers, but that direction was inevitable. Discussion began almost immediately, and by 1967 the Vatican approved three new Eucharistic Prayers. In 1974, the Congregation for Worship unveiled the experiment of two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation, and three for Masses with Children. At last, a period of creativity and enrichment had begun.

Dear Fr. Bill and Our Lady of Malibu Parish Community:

I write to express my most heartfelt gratitude for the gracious welcome you accorded me at your lovely parish. I was touched by your hospitality and generosity. You made me feel very much at home, and I'm deeply grateful.

The prayers and generous contributions of your faith community will go a long way in helping us to provide healthcare for the rural poor and support the most disadvantaged Ugandan children—the orphans under our care with a home, dedicated religious and professional staff, nourishing food, adequate clothing, medical attention, as well as suitable education. Most important, your donation will significantly help us realize our dream of providing these "little ones" of God with a good moral atmosphere, where their emotional and spiritual needs can be met; and where they are given a dignified and brighter future—a future they can in turn offer to their own children.

Thank you Fr. Bill. Our children thank you so very much. May our wonderful Lord abundantly bless you and your parish family that so generously gave in prayer, love and financial support.

Yours Gratefully,

Rev. Frederick K. Byaruhanga, Diocesan Representative

Becoming Catholic

Are you interested in exploring what it means to be Catholic? Do you know someone who is interested in the Catholic Church? We have a special process for adults that helps them understand what it means to be Catholic and whether they are being called by God to live as Catholics. If you are interested, contact the rectory office (310-456-2361).

Religious Education

Do you have a child that has not made their First Communion? There are special programs set up to meet the needs of these children. To register please see Marie Slaton after any Sunday Mass. Or if it more convenient please contact her by phone at the Parish Office. Registrations are being accepted now.

Grade 1 students:

Children at this age typically begin their preparation to receive Penance and Eucharist. Registration is required before the first class session on Sunday, September 24th. Please contact Marie Slaton to enroll your child.

OLM Yard Sale

Now accepting donations

The Yard Sale will start on August 12th and run thru the 20th. All items should be clean, safe, and in good working order.

We regret we cannot accept mattresses, case TVs, or child car seats.

Donations are accepted Mondays through Friday from 9:00am to 3:00pm at the Rectory. Large item pickups are available upon request. Please call Sandy at 310-456-3060.
